

Financial Information
CCI-USA Fall Fundamentals Course 2025
Kathryn Bass

- The cost is $450—$550 on a sliding scale, based on your ability to pay.
- Co-counseling is a very low cost way to promote self help and healing; hour for hour the cost is equivalent to a yoga class. The higher end of the sliding scale is meant for those who can afford a bit more to help subsidize places for those who cannot. Thank you.
- If finances are an issue, Scholarship support may be available for new students, based on need. Please reach out to me ASAP to discuss and apply. See below for information on the Melissa Moore Scholarship Fund.
- Payment is due prior to the first class. Payment plans are available on a case by case basis; please contact me to discuss.
- Experienced co-counselors - please enjoy a $25 discount. If finances are an issue, please reach out to me to see how you may be able to assist in some way for a further discount.
- To pay by Venmo: @kathryn-bass-26 (last four digits of my phone are 8303)
- To pay by check: please let me know if you are choosing this option and I will give you more information.
- If you need to pay a different way, let me know and we'll figure it out.
- It is strongly encouraged you commit to and complete the training. That said, co-counseling is not for everyone, and life can sometimes present challenges that make it impossible to complete the course. If you cancel within 2 days of the first class, you will receive a full refund. After that, you may be entitled to a partial refund (minus a $50 registration fee) or credit towards the next course.

The Melissa Moore Scholarship Fund for CCI-USA

Melissa Moore was a young co-counselor who died in a motor vehicle accident; this scholarship fund has been put forth in her memory to support newcomers to co-counseling who have financial need.

CCI-USA is a non-profit organization and completely run by volunteers (teachers receive payment for courses) and runs on a minimal budget. Scholarship money has been generously donated by members of the community who wish to support new people; funds are very limited.

If you are requesting this scholarship, please ask yourself to seriously consider how much money you could put towards your own self investment.**

Scholarship is for a portion of the class amount. If you have extenuating circumstances please speak with me to see what is possible.

Please let me know what amount you could afford, and why you are in need of such funds. I will anonymously take your request to the Community Committee (the committee that oversees the business end of CCI-USA) for approval. If funds are granted, I ask that you commit to the course until the end. If you do not finish the course, I do not get paid.
